FARMVILLE.

The spirit of improvement is abroad in our town and is not confined to churches and other public buildings but has pervaded in full force residence circles. Persons entering Farmville from the South, via the Hampden-Sidney road, can hardly recognize what has long been known as "Baptist Hill" New homes abound, the latest of them being those of the Noel brothers and Garland, the hustling insurance man. This last would do credit to any town. The porch is strikingly handsome, and what is home without a porch?

The old Spencer home in East Farmville, now the property of Mr. Warren Walker, will be made new from cellar to garrett, and when finished will be one of the most valuable and attractive residences in this town of good homes. Not only will the house itself be commanding, but located as it is upon one of the most graceful eminences with in our corporate limits, the whole will present a picture of real beauty. Mr. Walker deserves credit from the community for this improvement, for until now East Farmville has been somewhat neglected, not only by the city fathers but by the citizens living there as well. In the future West End may look well to its building needs, for Mr. Walker starts out with the laudable ambition of having the very best home in all Farmville. "Dick" Rice, a Prince Edward boy, and for a number of years resident of this town, has, charge of this work, as he also has of the building of the Methodist church, two of the most important of the buil ing operations of the present, and this is especially gratifying to those of us who believe in cultivating the home market.

High Street, leading from Main in a westerly direction via the Normal School, will be put in perfect walking and driving condition, and though much of the money to be expended on it comes from the sale of the same lupor, (not so good I am told) as was once dispensed over the counters of bar rooms, no one stops to ask whether it is 'tainted' or not. I repeat, the whiskey problem is yet unsolved.

Our Clerk's office is a model of comfort and convenience, and our clerk, Mr. E. J. Whitehead, a model of courtesy and efficiency.

With the Farmville lithia, freshat the ir doors every morning, our people feel no need of seeking resorts. Those who go to mountain or seaside go for fun and not in search of "the fountain of health," just as is true of our "sociber boys" who have been playing with the billows that beat against the shore at Ocean View.

If Farmville appreciated the value of her one military organization as she should, on the occasion of the next encampment there would be 80 to 100 rank and file instead of some 30. Policemen are good but soldiers with arms under command are better.

Mr. D.T. Elam is having two up-to-date residences erected. They will be furnished with furnaces and all modern conveniences. Rev. M. Littleton and daughter will occupy one of them, and Dr. Messenger and family the other.

Miss Snow, of the Normal faculty is busy fixing up her cozy little home, on Beech Street, to be ready for her mother who will join her early in September. Miss Pierce also a member of the faculty, will have a room with her.

Capt. S. W. Paulette is perfectly satisfied that he was as young of years as any soldier who entered the Confederate service in 1861, and who on entering shouldered a musket and went to the front. And then he is prepared to match battles with all comers.

The heavy rains have injured our improved walkways, but we are all hoping for granolithics in the coming future.

It looks as though all the murderers of that good man, Grubbs, would have to face their accusers. The law will be allowed to take its course.

President Jarman, who has been visiting his family at Greenville, Tenn., while there sent the "greeting of Wm. Dabney Jarman" to his Farmville friends, Three boys and two girls! Congratulations and good wishes.

Our early farmers have been cutting tobacco for "clear life." There are some good crops, but not many of them. Wet seasons are not best crop seasons.

The new passenger train on the Tidewater & Western is being patronized more and more. I am of the opinion that if it were made to run daily rather than tri-weekly it would pay even better.

Grazing town cows is a source of comfortable revenue to more than one of our near-by land owners, as well as great convenience to owners of town cows.

Mr. W H. Richardson feels his way down town every morning, takes his accustomed seat in front of Duvall & Son's store and is greeted by his friends as they come and go. Kindness, as some one has so well said, is a language which can be appreciated by the deaf and by the blind as well.

Now that Dr. White is in his new and handsome store Farmville can boast of four as up-to-date and attractive drug stores as can be found in town of like size the country over.

Richmond should learn of Farmville how to have clear water the year round. During the rainy season ours has been refreshingly and quite ugly clear. Thanks for those having the system in charge.

Mr. B. L. Anderson continues week, but rides to his office each morning, greets his friends in passing and reads the daily paper with pleasure. I agree with him in preferring the Evening Journal to any of the Richmond papers.

Our girls are getting ready to return to their various schools. They agree in saying that the vacation time has gone by like a shadow. Noble girls they are and nobly are they repaying the mother-commonwealth for all she did for them.

Mr. Bryan is not discouraged. He saw from the first that prying Roger Sullivan loose from his ill gotten gains would be no easy matter.

The TIMES for news.

Another Good Man Gone Wrong.

He neglected to take Foley's Kidney Cure at the first signs of kidney trouble, hoping it would wear away, and he was soon a victim of Bright's disease. There is danger in delay, but if Foley's Kidney Cure is taken at once the symptoms will disappear the kidneys will strengthen and you are soon sound and well. A. R. Bass of Morgantown, Ind., had to get up ten or twelve times in the night, and had a severe backache and pains in the kidneys, and was was cured by Foley's Kidney Cure.

How to Avoid Appendicitis

Most victims of appendicitis are those who are habitually constipated. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures by mild constipation by stimulating the liver and bowels and restoring the natural action of the bowels. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and it is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes.

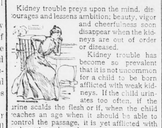
Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney Trouble.



Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; health, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not considered unusual for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of its difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of those important organs. "The unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose."

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one dollar sizes. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also pamphlet telling all about it, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper.

Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

OXYDONOR

Obviates the use of poisonous drugs. It renders the entire system so naturally healthy that disease can find no lurking place. It rids the organism of disease, and at any reasonable stage effects a rapid, natural cure, regardless of the gravity or form of the disorder. Oxydonor compels the free absorption of oxygen through the lungs, embraces or skin. It strengthens the whole body, increases the vitality and good sleep and good appetite. OXYDONOR, in short, IS LIFE. It is an instrument of simplest form: its cost is not great, and with care it lasts a lifetime. It is made ready for self-treatment by anyone. Thousands of families depend upon this superior method for good health. Descriptive book, containing many grateful reports from those who have cured themselves, mailed free to anyone.

A WIFE.

They say I have a happy life,
And I am proud of my handsome Lord.
Yet they dream not of the inward strife,
The pain and bitter discord.

So I mingle with the gay,
And seem the happiest of all.
As I fret the time away
Beneath a weary pall.

I have jewels, oh so cold,
And white the diamonds gleam
Beneath the lace's fold,
To mock me, it would seem.

And pearls, like the tears of night,
Or the stars that softly shine,
And rubies, blood-red bright,
As though stained by the hand of crime.

I am sheltered from the cold,
Have horses and carriages fine,
And servants manifold,
Yes, all of these are mine.

So I mingle with fashion's throng,
And on my lips I wear a smile,
And join in the laugh and song,
Yet my heart is breaking the while.

And the breath from clover field,
Or the air of a refrain
Can over me it's power wield,
And bring to my heart, a pain.

But hark! there is my Lord's step on the stair,
And I must smile again,
And look cold and fair,
In the circle of my golden chain.

And deck myself with jewels,
And I'm diamonds I will wear,
For they are cold and cruel,
And have no memories in their glare.

Then take the rubies red
And put them from my sight.
The crimson glare I dread,
The diamond's glare is white,

Then bring no flowers, white or red,
But give me jewels cold,
The flowers' sweet perfume I dread,
Old memories they would hold.

Flowers are for happy wives,
And jewels such as I
Their hearts on love and flowers thrive,
While mine must starve and die.

Then give me jewels cold
That will their glare reflect in the light,
For I myself have sold,
And must bury all else from sight.

CARLINE CALOWAY.

A movement will probably be made to get a pardon for Wilson Ellis, who killed Mr. Wm. Childress by mistake. A prominent gentleman in Richmond has interested himself in the matter and has written here to know the facts in the case and if he is satisfied that by the unwritten law of Virginia that Ellis would have been justified in killing Reuben Jones the Governor will be asked to consider the matter of pardoning Ellis.

Mrs. W. B. Pratt and family left for Farmville last Friday. They will be greatly missed here.

Tobacco is being cut and the crop will be much injured by the continued hot and wet weather. Some has rotted on the hill and some is so badly "frog eyed" as to be only fit for lugs.

There was an accident on the Railroad at Dillwyn last Thursday and the mail was delayed, no one was killed.

A son of Mr. Wiley Wooten fell into The Dutch Gap Quarry at Arron one night last week, sustaining injuries, from which it is thought he can recover. He remained in the water at the bottom of the quarry until day. The pumps have been run all night to keep the water down and young Wooten was helping to run the pump on the night of his accident, but it is not known how he came to fall.

Mr. Humphries, of the Baptist church, has been conducting protracted services at St. Andrews and there were a number who professed conversion.

An R. F. D. mail route has been put into operation, running from Dillwyn to Garretts Mill with young Mr. Connor as carrier. Such strenuous objection was made by the patrons of the Wily and Brierhook officers to abolishing those offices and the new existing Star Routes, that the Government has decided not to have the R. F. D. running from this place. Mr. Walton Gilliam has bought an extra horse and made other preparations to undertake this contract and had been notified what time to begin and it seems as if "Uncle Sam" should pay him for the time he has lost at least.

A number of children went to the Presbyterian church last Sunday expecting Sunday School, but there was no one there to teach them. This ought not so to be.

Dr. S. R. Glover has been on a visit to Dr. Perkins Glover at Arvonia.

Something may be known of the advance in prices for lumber when we find ceiling and flooring $30 a thousand for first class stuff and heart pine weather-boarding is hardly to be had at any price.

Mr. Garland Morris had a sale of some personal property last week.

Much tobacco will be cut this week if the weather is good, very little fodder will be saved, as the labor is not to be had.

The colored people had a Baptist Association at Slate River church last week and many young men and women who were at work at other places came home and at ended. They sold dinner and refreshments on the grounds.

Mr. Gregory For Congress.

A brief reference was made last week to a rumor that the Republicans would run Mr. Emmet D. Gregory this fall for Congress. It appears that a serious movement in that direction is under way with a fair chance of Mr. Gregory's nomination.

As our readers know, the Outlook and Mr. Gregory are of different political faiths, and "advice from the enemy" usually is looked on with suspicion; but, if Mr. Gregory is willing to be the standard-bearer in a cause doomed to failure at the polls, we hope his Republican friends will place their standard in his hands.

Certainly if zeal and activity in their service call for such honors as they are able to bestow, then Mr. Gregory has a strong claim on their consideration. He has been a staunch Republican all his life, in Buckingham he has led their forlorn hopes over and over again—each time with unflagging vigor and enthusiasm. True, he usually has been defeated, but then no Republican leadership would have been more effective here during the same length of time. Undoubtedly Mr. Gregory deserves reward at the hands of his party.

During the campaign last fall Mr. Gregory covered the whole county about once a week with a flood of Republican literature, addressed, through the mails, to every voter, Democratic as well as Republican. Doubtless he would pursue the same tactics this year in the district he should be receive the nomination for Congress. At any rate, he would spare neither expense nor effort. He seems to fight as fiercely without hope of success as with it.

Mr. Gregory is forty-five years of age. He is a prominent Mason being Worshipful Master of his lodge at this time. He is also an active and prominent Odd Fellow Woodman and member of the Baptist church. He has been post-master at Dillwyn for four years and during that time the business of the office has increased four-fold.

If Mr. Gregory is nominated there'll certainly be a fight.—The Buckingham Outlook.

Girls who marry titles, are beginning to learn that they get very little clear.

A Clear Complexion and Bright Eyes

In most cases a sallow, blotched complexion and dull lusterless eyes are due to poor digestion and an inactive liver. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup aids digestion and stimulates the liver and bowels and makes the complexion bright and clear. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes.
